Call for Papers

Papers, posters, presentations of new projects and software demonstrations are invited on the topic "Lexicography and Society" as well as all lexicographically relevant topics including, but not limited to, the following fields:

1. The Dictionary-Making Process
2. Research on Dictionary Use
3. Lexicography and Language Technologies
4. Lexicography and Corpus Linguistics
5. Bi- and Multilingual Lexicography
6. Lexicography for Specialised Languages, Terminology and Terminography
7. Lexicography of Lesser-Used and Under-Researched Languages
8. Phraseology and Collocation
9. Lexicography and Etymology
10. Lexicological Issues of Lexicographical Relevance
11. Reports on Lexicographical and Lexicological Projects

The main topics are not meant to exclude any other lexicographic topic. Papers, posters, new projects and demonstrations that are relevant to the congress, but do not fit into any of the above-mentioned categories 1–11, will be reviewed nonetheless and considered for presentation.

Types of contributions

When submitting your proposal, you can choose between the following types of contribution:

– Papers (regular 20 min. presentations)
– Software demonstrations (10 min. demonstrations in a specific time slot on the hybrid conference day)
– Posters (to be presented in a dedicated poster session)

Each proposal will be reviewed anonymously by a minimum of two members of the Scientific Committee.

The Conference Proceedings will be published online and freely accessible ahead of the conference. They will also be submitted for indexing in Scopus.

Call for Workshops

The conference offers an opportunity to discuss topics in detail at Pre-Conference Workshops. These can be as follows:

Full-Day Workshop = Monday 11th July between 10am–3pm

Half-Day Workshop = Tuesday 12th July between 9am–12am.

Depending on the number of participants, venues can be booked for the IDS (for free) or alternatively, for the conference venue (extra booking fee). For this purpose, the IDS offers a lecture hall for up to 80 participants and a smaller meeting room with a seating capacity of max. 15 attendees. Lecture or seminar rooms at the university are available in different sizes and can be rented per hour or day (prizes depending on size). If you wish to organise or take part in a workshop you are required to register as a conference attendee and are asked to pay the applicable registration fee. Workshop organiser may ask for an additional workshop fee.

Proposals are welcome and must include:

– title + workshop chair,
– length and format of workshop,
– estimate of audience size,
– short description of agenda,
– information about structure and time schedule,
– preferred time slot,
– any technical needs.

Workshop proposals must be submitted to euralex2022@ids-mannheim.de by the 20th November 2021. Each submitted proposal is reviewed closely by the conference Organising Committee until the middle of December 2021.

Best regards

Annette Klosa-Kückelhaus and the EURALEX 2022 Organising Committee
